PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Jose CASTRO-De La Cruz (Material Witness) is a citizen of a country other than the United States; that said alien has admitted he is deportable; that his testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure his attendance at trial by subpoena; and that he is a material witness in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On October 15, 2007 at approximately 12:55 AM Blanca Estela MORAN (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States at the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry as the driver and sole visible occupant of a maroon 2000 Ford Contour sedan. Defendant presented a California identification card bearing her name and photograph to a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer. The CBP Officer received a negative customs declaration from the Defendant. The CBP Officer observed a space discrepancy between the rear seat and trunk of vehicle and escorted the Defendant into secondary inspection.

During secondary inspection, a CBP Canine Enforcement Officer received an alert from their Narcotic/Human Detection canine to the vehicle Defendant was operating. An inspection of the vehicle revealed a non-factory compartment between the rear seat and trunk area of the vehicle. Subsequently, one male individual was removed from the compartment. The male individual was determined to be a citizen of Mexico with no entitlements to enter the United States. Jose CASTRO-De La Cruz is now identified as (Material Witness). All individuals were escorted to the prosecutions unit area for further processing.

During a videotaped interview Defendant was advised of her Miranda rights. Defendant acknowledged her rights and elected to answer questions without an attorney present. During the interview Defendant admitted she was attempting to smuggle one undocumented alien into the United States. Defendant admitted that she had knowledge that Material Witness is a citizen of Mexico with no entitlements to enter the United States. Defendant admitted she picked up Material Witness in Rosarito, Mexico. Defendant admitted she assisted and witnessed Material Witness enter the non-factory compartment of the vehicle. Defendant admitted her intentions were to smuggle Material Witness into the United States and drive him to Los Angeles, California.

During a videotaped interview Material Witness admitted he is a citizen of Mexico without legal documentation to enter into, pass through, or remain in the United States. Material Witness stated that he entered into the compartment on his own. Material Witness stated that he made his own arrangements and was not going to pay a fee to be smuggled into the United States. Material Witness stated he intended to travel to Los Angeles, California to resume his previous residency and employment.
